MAY DELAY REGISTRATION.

Police Board Walted Too Long Refore Designating Polling Places.

The tardiness of the Police Board in designating polling places is likely to cause considerable difficulty to-morrow, the first day of registration. The Board attend to the matter, but the business has probably been too long delayed to

Out of the 1.142 required polling places in the city the Bureau of Elections have only secured leases for about 859. That there were 252 more to be provided for was known a week ago, but aside from calling to-day's meeting no step was taken towards meeting the emergency. Gen. Rodenbough, Chief of the Bureau of Elections, submitted to the Police Board a complete list of places for which leases could be had last August.

Commissioner Murray, the Chairman of the Committee on Elections although there was no apparent reason for delay unless it might be for the furthering of same partisan scheme.

The great majority of the vacancies are on the east side in the downtown districts, and as the majority of the ewners of property wanted are Hebrews and to-morrow is the Day of Atonement, there is little probability of securing the needed leases in time.

Much trouble, however, may be obviated, as captains of the several police precincts are empowered under the law to designate polling places in such an emergency as is feared, and Clerk Alien hopes that suitable places may be found in time for the beginning of the registration to-morrow. The other Jays of registration are Oct. 17, 26 and 27.

Vacancies in the list of election inspectors will be filled to-morrow morning before the registration begins.

He has already telegraphed Secretary Luke O'Reilly that he is in fine trim, but the Committee desires to see Wolcott personally, the same as the other men engaged to box, and will visit all before Thursday, to make sure that they have all been faithful. The public who intend to see the big boxing carnival on Monday night, Oct. 15, can rest assured that they will witness contests between perfectly trained at hietes. There is already a big demand for tickets. The latter have just been issued, and can be obtained at Official Referee John P. The patrons of the Columbia Athletic Club boxing tournament at the Grand Central Palace on Saturday night were well paid for their visit. They saw as good a boxing tournament as has been seen in tals city in a long time. The interference of Police Inspector Williams on Thursday night had a depressing effect upon the attendance, but on Saturday night the Inspector did not interfere unnecessarily, and the result was that each bout was completely finished, except where the men were not equally matched. There were so many men to box that the management decided to hold the finals Thursday night. The boxing will no doubt prove very interesting, as Inspector Williams said on Saturday night that he was satisfied with the airrangements.
